PAROLE OFFICE

The following information was obtained from the Forsyth County Clerk of Court's Office and Detective R. A. Spillman of the Winston-Salem Police Department.

Subject was charged with 2 counts of Breaking, Entering and Larceny. The first incident occurred on 1-20-85. Subject Willard Brown did break and enter Bob's place, a game room, located at 1521 E. 14th Street in Winston-Salem. The subject did steal $100.00 in currency, $150.00 worth of assorted beer in cans and in bottles, $59.85 worth in assorted cigarettes and a Kerosene Heater, having a total value of $449.85. The break-in occurred between midnight and 8:00 a.m. on the 20th. Entry was through the front door, which had the glass broken out and the door unlocked. The Juke Box inside the gameroom had been pried open and the money taken from it. The beer cooler had been left open and 15 cases of beer were missing. There were no investigative leads at the time. Barbara Campbell who worked at the game room heard that Anthony Brown and his brother were responsible for the break-in. The subject, Willard Brown and his brother Anthony, lived in the residence right next to the game room.

On 3-5-85, Detective Spillman investigated Anthony Brown and he admitted to the break-in along with his brother, Willard.

The other break-in occurred on 3-3-85 at Bernard's Superette, located at 1535 E. 14th Street in Winston-Salem. Taken in the break-in were a Magnavox black and white TV, Kerosene Heater, assorted beer, wine, cigarettes and grocery items. The total value of the items taken was $1,166.25. The incident was similar to the one of January 20th. This store is located in the same block where this subject, Willard Brown lived and it was broken into during the nighttime hours. According to Det. Spillman, none of the items taken were recovered.

After sometime, the subject was arrested and charged with the two break-ins and larcenies. He plead guilty on 4-28-86 and upon a plea of guilty, the subject was sentenced to 8 yrs. to be served in the State Department of Corrections.
